

Sixteen Secrets: Forever Watching

Brandon Gray is content with having a mediocre and boring life. Brandon is a classic underachiever coasting through life. Until new light is shed on what he really wants in his life. To succeed! No longer accepting failure as an option he is determined to turn everything around by beating the game. Proving that he can accomplish something, by doing so his relationship with his longtime friend Becky come to a grinding halt as she is convinced he will only ever be a failure. When Brandon finally succeeds in beating the game his efforts are met by unexpected guests ready to forcefully recruit him to do their dirty deeds. Who is this mysterious group? Why do they need Brandon? And how will this unlucky young man make history? About the author Whats up guys, Im glad you could make it. Im Jonathan Poole, emerging short fiction author. I write to explore the mind and all it has to offer. Im a 4x world record holder, musician, singer-songwriter, guitarist and self-published flash fiction writer. i grew up in Marion, NC where I studied at MTCC for culinary arts. I decided what I really wanted to be is an actor and a writer. i do a lot because there is a lot i want to do. Follow me on twitter @jpoole9007 creativity is the engine that moves humanity, without it we cant possibly move forward. Jonathan Poole is an emerging short fiction author having self-published four titles. Growing up in Marion, North Carolina he found that he enjoyed writing and creating stories. Jonathan started with song-writing three years ago, being able to put his feelings on to paper showed him that he needed to do more with his creative abilities. So early 2015 Jonathan was big into culinary arts and the passion to be a chef burned bright. He self-published his first piece being a cook book Cuisine Chasers, with the dream of shares him wonderful recipes. By early 2016 he began writing short fiction starting with Endlessly in Stone. since then Jonathan has published five other titles. There are more works to come enjoy.
