

Banker (Francis Thriller)

A classic mystery from Dick Francis, the champion of English storytellers. Tim Ekaterin has a lot of money. Unfortunately, it is other peoples, and it is his job to invest it wisely, or get fired. And right now hes taken a big risk: using 75 million to stud a champion racing stallion. When the resulting foals have birth defects, Tim is worried and decides that there may be something else going on at the stables. His suspicions are confirmed when one of those helping with the horses is murdered. Now its not just about money, but about life and death. Determined to get to the bottom of why anyone would do this, Tim puts himself in dangers path to discover the truth . . . Praise for Dick Francis: As a jockey, Dick Francis was unbeatable when he got into his stride. The same is true of his crime writing Daily Mirror Dick Franciss fiction has a secret ingredient - his inimitable knack of grabbing the readers attention on page one and holding it tight until the very end Sunday Telegraph The narrative is brisk and gripping and the background researched with care . . . the entire story is a pleasure to relish Scotsman Francis writing at his best Evening Standard A regular winner . . . as smooth, swift and lean as ever Sunday Express A super chiller and killer New York Times Book Review
