

Gods Own City - An African Memoir: An African Memoir

Use of language fascinating - a readers delight that keeps hunger at bay. Dr. (Mrs.) Adebomi Oyewumi, University of Ibadan Distinguished literary effort, a very brilliant piece.

Lam Adesina, Governor of Oyo State

Compelling coagulation of national, international and personal experiences of generations of Africans. Dr. Hope Eghagha, English Dept., University of Lagos

Irresistible, lucid, lighthearted, unusually styled narrative prose, even as the author muses on issues profoundly reflective of (us) as a society and as individuals. O. A. Olajide, GM, FMBN A book among books, a quick reminder of the pure childhood and upbringing we had - that beautiful past. Fola Oyewole, Author of Reluctant Rebel Painstaking attention to details and vibrancy in narration; a valuable addition to the autobiographies of notable achievers.

Prof. Tunde Agbola, Director and Head, CURP, University of Ibadan Reveals the authors perception of Nigeria before and after independence. A must-read for discerning minds. Chief S. O. Fadahunsi, Bobatolu of Ilesha
