

Helen Hath No Fury

In the stately nineteenth-century homes on Philadelphias Delancey Street, the wilder passions scarcely ruffle the peace. Murder is unthinkable, particularly a murder involving an upscale book discussion group, of which schoolteacher Amanda Pepper is a devoted member. Nevertheless, on the day after a heated discussion of a fictional heroines suicide, book group member Helen Coulter falls to her death from her roof garden. Helens death is declared a suicide but Amanda is convinced otherwise. Why is this admirable woman dead? And if she was killed, who performed the heinous act? Amandas investigations will draw her into a zone of great danger, where Helen Coulters ice-hearted killer is once more ready to strike. . . .
