

I Dont Have a Thing To Wear

I Dont Have a Thing to Wear is a humorous and spiritual account of how DeMares O'Connell Pleat finally found true love at the age of fifty-five. After enjoying a dynamic thirty-five year career in the teaching profession, she married her miracle love. A delightful adventure that led her through memory upon memory, this compelling memoir left the author with the feeling that the tapestry of her life was enriched by an understanding of the path she had walked to find love. Readers young, old, single, married, male or female are sure to laugh out loud and shed many tears as her beautiful and deeply touching tale unfolds
