Excerpt from Porcupines Works, Containing Various Writings and Selections, Exhibiting a Faithful Picture of the United States of America, Vol. 11 of 12: Of Their Governments, Laws, Politics and Resources; Of the Characters of Their Presidents, Governors, Legislators, Magistrates and Military Men I Have lately had put into my hands, for perusal, a book entitled the Bulwark of Truth, written and compiled (for the greatest part is a compilation) by a Mr. D. Fraser, author of the Young Gentlemans and Ladys Assistant, and an inhabitant of New-York. The work as handed to me with the evident intention of inducing me to recommend it in my paper. The title prepossessed me in its favour; but, though I have been some time a bookseller, and, of course, content myself with reading the title pages of books, I always think it necessary to look a little further, before I venture recommend a work to my subscribers. The object of this book is to assist in counteracting the effects of that nefarious publication, Paines Age of Reason. The author conceived that nothing could be better calculated to answer this end, than a selection of the lives and testimonies of many eminent Laymen, who have professed their belief in the Christian Faith.
