

When Nightlife Falls

Hartley deftly paints vivid pictures of his life, expertly blending neuroses and insightful observations with a dazzling abundance of wit and charm. - Gay List Daily ...he makes us laugh and he makes us angry. His sarcasm is sharp and fun There is so much I can say but wont because to read Hartley means to be left open to surprise. Let that be my recommendation. -

ReviewsByAmosLassen.com sexy, funny and snappy. - SouthFloridaGayNews.com cool cover - TheSword.com Manhattan is an island of trouble for radio show host Derek Hartley, with heartache and danger waiting around every corner. Lost in a swirl of the hottest men and the darkest bars, the nights are filled with adventure in the big city. But when he moves away from the bright lights of the metropolis, the surprises keep coming. This is what happens... When Nightlife Falls. Already a popular radio show host on Sirius XM, When Nightlife Falls is Hartleys second memoir about his life in New York City. Once again, he candidly explores his personal life, this time providing insight about life behind the scenes of his radio show, discussing the intimate details of his failed romances and the sordid characters (both famous and infamous) he meets along the way. Filled with humor and told in his unique conversational style, When Nightlife Falls is a witty exploration of Manhattan nightlife as only Derek Hartley can tell it.
