

Palestine Exploration Fund: Quaterly Statement for 1881 (Classic Reprint)

Excerpt from Palestine Exploration Fund: Quaterly Statement for 1881 The appearance of Mr. Oliphants book on the Land of Gilead is happily timed for those whose attention will now be turned to the land east of the Jordan. If anything were needed to show, more clearly than the Prospectus and the Report of the Meeting have shown, the necessity for our Survey, a perusal of this volume would furnish the last argument. Everywhere we read of bad maps, unknown districts, places where no European has ever been, ruins which have never been examined, strange people, and wild traditions. The Land of Gilead, illustrates the remark made by the Dean of Westminster at the late meeting, that East of the Jordan lies a land of mystery. Another event of the quarter is the appearance of Colonel Warrens new book on Jerusalem Topography. It is already well known that the author holds Views on the subject diametrically opposed to those advocated by Mr. James Fergusson in his Temples of the Jews, and other books on the same subject. The new work is essentially controversial, and as such, will be found a valuable addition to the literature on the sacred sites.
