

Pauls Case, The Best Years & More

TRILOGY - Three of Willa Cather's short story collections are in this Kindle eBook: A Collection of Stories, Book Reviews and Literary Essays (1892 - 1920); The Troll Garden & Selected Stories (1905); and Youth and The Bright Medusa (1920) Volume I - A Collection of Stories, Reviews and Essays (1892 - 1920) The first volume includes 12 short stories, literary reviews and observations about America's greatest authors including Mark Twain (author of The Adventures of Tom Sawyer), poet Walt Whitman and Stephen Crane (author of The Red Badge of Courage). Volume II - The Troll Garden & Selected Stories (1905) The second volume includes some of Cather's finest short stories including Pauls Case, which some observers believe to be a precursor to Holden Caulfield in Salinger's Catcher in the Rye. In The Enchanted Bluff, Cather sets her tale in the American southwest with a narrator fixated on a vanishing Native American population. The Best Years is Cather's final (finished) short story, examining the concept of living the best years in one's life. Volume III - Youth and the Bright Medusa (1920) The third and final volume includes four new short stories: Coming, Aphrodite!; The Diamond Mine; A Gold Slipper & Scandal. About The Author American author Willa Cather (1873 - 1947) was raised in Virginia and Nebraska and wrote eloquently about life on the Great Plains, including My Antonia (1918), considered her masterpiece. In 1923 she won the Pulitzer Prize for One of Ours, set during WWI. Her portraits of life on the Great Plains and struggling prairie immigrants evoke a golden period in American history. This collection brings together in one volume Cather's short stories, book reviews and literary works published over two decades in the late 1800s and early 1900s.
